

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

This is the last chapter, in this chapter describes the conclusions of this research and suggestions based on the results from previous chapter.

A. Conclussions

Having finished conducting the research of teaching writing in junior high school, the writer found a research finding to answer the research question which listed in introduction.

1. Statistical Data Analysis

Based on that the value of posttest by using Mann-Whitney U score with significance 2-tailed 0.013 it was lower than 0.05. It means that H_0 (H_{nul}) hypothesis was rejected. It can be concluded that there are significant difference between communicative approach and discovery learning in teaching writing descriptive text.

2. The Implementation of Communicative Approach and Discovery Learning

The implementation of communicative approach was more effective. It revealed from the situations in experimental group was conductive, the students' concentrate to the writer's explanation and the students' was interested in learning writing descriptive text through Picture as the Media of Teaching.

3. The Students' Difficulties

The writer concluded, that there are some difficulties faced by students' in writing descriptive text namely ideas of content, organization, the language use/ Grammar and producing the mechanical Descriptive Text.

B. Suggestions

After the writer carried out the research, the writer would like to give some suggestions related to the result of the research and discussion. The result of this research showed that it can be effective to apply in teaching and learning process. There are some points that the writer might suggest related to this research :

1. The teachers should use communicative approach towards students' writing skill in descriptive text, so the students' can produce their writing well.
2. The teachers should motivate their students' to keep learning and writing use an innovative method or media. It is make the students' more interested to create the sentences in writing descriptive text which is unity and can imagine the picture they are looking at, so that they can facilitate the students in describing.
3. The teacher should be more creative to find out the various themes of the descriptive text. The descriptive text is not only found at students' guide book, but the teacher can also find it out in the internet.

4. The further writers are expected to be able to study more sources or references. So the results of their research will be better and complete.
5. The further writers are expected to prepare themselves well. So, they can do the research as well as possible.
