

ABSTRACT

Some students feel difficult to mastering listening skill, it because the speaker is too fast, they have less vocabulary, or they don't get the meaning of what the speaker says. Whisper games brings relaxation and fun for student, to help them learn and retain words more easily. The objective of the research entitled "Teaching Listening Using whisper games to increasing students' ability" to determine whether or not whispering games can improve listening ability. The method of this research was descriptive qualitative The researcher use students at seventh grade one of junior high school in cimahi. The research subject used 7th grade and consist of 26 female students and 22 male students. conducts two tests for get the results of the method use. The first test was conducted in the form of a group test with an average value of 70 then the last test was carried out after applying the whisper games method with an average increase the score to 75. This figure proves an increase students understanding after the application of whisper games method in learning process.

Key words: Listening, Teaching, whisper games