Autobiography

My name is Muhammad Suhar Hendra Sukmara, I was born in Bandung, January 10, 1973. I am only child, from Mr. Muhamma Suhar Sukanda and Mrs. Tutty Nuryati. Hendra is my nickname; I was born in a simple family. My father used to work as chairman of the foundation Bina Dharma, while my mother is a housewife. Since childhood, they always advised me to be diligent in worship, honest, disciplined, and responsible in any case. Respect for elders and respect for others are also things they never forget to teach.

When I was 6 years old, I started going to school at SDN Ciroyom 1, then graduated to continue my education at Bina Dharma 1 Bandung Middle School in 1986. After graduating from junior high school, I continued to SMA Pasundan 3 Bandung. After graduating from high school, I had the opportunity to study at STBA Yapari, majoring in Japanese Language because I wanted to work in Japan. In 1996, I worked in the private school as an administrator.

In 2006, I was offered by the school to teach Japanese until 2015 because of the curriculum change I became teaching English. Because the requirement to become a teacher is to have a bachelor degree, so in 2018 I studied at STKIP Pasundan majoring in English Language Education.

In 2019, I married my former student who was studying at Uninus in the same Departement as me. Then, I invited my wife to study together at IKIP Siliwangi. Various processes have passed, not long after being blessed with a child, then the pandemic at that time. now I officially have a Bachelor of Education degree right behind my name. All the praises be to Allâh, the Lord of the 'Alamîn.

Everyone proceeds in their own way. Be confident enough with what you are going through, that you are able to start, you must be able to finish. Believe in your abilities, try and no surrender. Results will never disappoint.
